

Northwest Passage

Verse:

1. Westward from the Davis Strait his three boats said to lie the seaward to the Orient for which so many died.

Seeking gold and glory leaving weathered broken bones, and a long forgotten lonely cairn of stones.

Chorus:

Ah for just one time, I would take the Northwest Passage, to find the hand of

Franklin reaching for the Beaufort Sea, tracing one warm line through a land so wide and savage, and make a Northwest Passage to the sea.
